
Overview of the UEA study block programme 2020/21

Induction Event - 10-11 August

- Introduction to the four main themes of the programme
 - Clinical skills development
 - Becoming a pharmacy professional
 - Patient care in the community
 - Developing skills through assessment
- Meeting the Placement Supervisors
- Staff Trainee Liaison Group (STLG)
- The Patient Experience
- Quality Improvement projects and 2021 Excellence Awards
- Introduction to the GPhC assessment framework
 - Mock Part 1 and Part 2 style assessments

Study Block 1 – 21-24 September 2020

- Clinical skills development:
 - Care of Cardiology patients
 - Pain & Palliative care
 - Care of Older Patients
 - Care of the Surgical Patient
- Becoming a pharmacy professional:
 - Patient Safety & High-risk drugs
 - Quality Improvement projects
 - Patient Consultation Skills
- Patient care in the community:
 - Minor Ailments
 - Respiratory & Allergies
 - Pain
 - Pharmacy Services:
 - Sexually transmitted Infections
 - Emergency Hormonal Contraception
- Developing skills through assessment:
 - Pre-study block GPhC style mock assessment
 - Clinical Application Exercises (CAE)
 - Post- study block Case Based Discussion (CBD)

Overview of the study block programme (continued)

Study Block 2 – 23-26 November 2020

- Clinical skills development:
 - Infections & Antimicrobials
 - Care of Patients with Diabetes
 - Care of Hepatology patients
 - Care of Gastroenterology patients
 - Care of Renal patients
 - Care of Neurology patients
- Becoming a pharmacy professional:
 - Evidence Based medicines & Medicines Information (optional)
 - Quality Improvement appointments (optional)
- Patient care in the community:
 - Minor Ailments – Eyes, Ears and dermatology
 - Pharmacy Services:
 - New Medicines Service (NMS)
 - Substance Misuse
 - Smoking Cessation
- Developing skills through assessment:
 - Pre-study block GPhC style mock assessments
 - Clinical Application Exercises (CAE)
 - Post study block Case Based Discussion (CBD)

St John
Ambulance

First Aid Training Course

Details to be confirmed

Study Block 3 – 22-25 February 2021

- Clinical skills development:
 - Care of the Respiratory patient
 - Care of the Oncology patient
 - Care of Endocrinology patients
- Patient care in the community:
 - Minor Ailments:
 - Childhood Ailments
 - Gastroenterology
 - Pharmacy Services:
 - Immunisations
 - Travel health
- Developing skills through assessment:
 - GPhC style half mock assessment Part 1 & Part 2 with feedback
 - Clinical Application Exercises (CAE)
 - Post-study block Case Based Discussion (CBD)

Overview of the study block programme (continued)

Study Block 4 – 10-13 May 2021

- Clinical skills development:
 - Care of paediatric Patients
 - Care of Mental Health Patients
 - Clinical Revision Tool dissemination
- Becoming a pharmacy professional:
 - End-of-year evaluations
- Patient care in the community:
 - Community pharmacy revision session
- Developing skills through assessment:
 - End of Year Clinical Quiz
 - Preparing for the GPhC Assessment
 - GPhC style full mock assessment Part 1 & Part 2 with feedback

Timetabling of all sessions is subject to change.

Attendance at all study blocks is mandatory and any unauthorised absence will be reported to your employing trust.

Other important dates for your diary

Deadlines for submission of:

- Audit abstracts – Friday 16 April 2021
- Title of Excellence Awards Day presentation - Wednesday 28 April 2021
- Power-point presentations for Excellence Awards Day - Wednesday 12 May 2021

Excellence Awards day

19th MAY 2021 (possibly virtual)